

Hopkinsville Kentuckian

L. XXVIII.

HOPKINSVILLE, KENTUCKY, THURSDAY, DECEMBER 27, 1906.

NO. 156

TEN DAYS REMOVAL SALE.

January 1st we are going to occupy the Racket building corner Main and Tenth streets. To save trouble and expense of moving our large stock we are going to make Bargain Prices On Everything for the Next Ten Days.

If you need a wagon, buggy, harness, laprobe, blizzard storm front, carriage heater, horse blanket, waterproof horse cover, bridles, saddles, blankets, collars, hames, chains or anything in our line, it will pay you to see us, as we will move nothing we can possibly dispose of. Come and look through before you purchase your Christmas presents. We have some nice ones.

F. A. YOST & CO.

207 Main Street.

CITY BANK.

Hopkinsville, - Kentucky.

Offers its Services to the Public and Solicits a Share of its Patronage.

CAPITAL $60,000.00
SURPLUS 70,000.00

Pays 3 Per Cent Interest on Time Deposits.

E. B. LONG, President.

W. T. TANDY, Cashier.

First National Bank

HOPKINSVILLE, - KY.

UNITED STATES DEPOSITARY.

THE ONLY NATIONAL BANK IN THE CITY.

Solicits accounts of individuals and corporations desiring a safe place of deposit or accommodations on approved security. Three per cent. interest paid on Time Certificates of Deposit. Safety Deposit Boxes for Customers.

Geo. C. Long, President.

Thos. W. Long, Cashier.

C. F. Jarrett, Vice-Prest.

Bank of Hopkinsville.

Corner Seventh and Main Streets.

Capital paid in $100,000.00
Surplus 35,000.00

ample Resources. Modern Equipment. Superior Service.

We Want Your Business!

Furnish Our Customers Safety Deposit Boxes!

Per Cent. Interest on Time Certificates of Deposit!

President.

J. E. McPherson, Cashier.

McPherson, Asst-Cashier.

EVEN MEN SHOT IN CLASH AT STURGIS.

Three Were Killed and Two Others
Perhaps Fatally Wounded Monday
Night at That Place.

ELIHU DOUGHERTY SHOT TO DEATH.

TROUBLE WAS BETWEEN GUARDS AND UNION
COAL MINERS IN A POOL ROOM—L. Q. MOORE,
ANOTHER CHRISTIAN COUNTY MAN MAY DIE.

As a result of a battle Monday night between union and non-union miners and guards at Sturgis, Ky., Union County, three men are dead and two are so seriously injured that it will be impossible for them to recover.

A special says the trouble started in front of a pool-room near the heart of the town and for a short time it seemed that the entire population in that vicinity was involved. A number of guards from the West Kentucky coal mines, who had come out side of the poolroom and an argument was started, which resulted in a few minutes in an armed clash, all the men involved in the trouble using their revolvers.

The Dead.

E. J. DOUGHERTY, mine guard.
WILLIAM MALLOY, miner.
WILL GRAY, miner.

The Wounded.

L. Q. Moore, mine guard; may die.
Sam Barnaby, miner; may die.
William Booth, miner; shot in the arm.

Henry Delaney, miner; shot in the arm.
The fight occurred about one mile from the mine.

Dougherty, a single man and one of the guards, was killed in the first fusillade, as was Gray and Malloy, both union men and each leaving a large family.

L. Q. Moore received four wounds, one in the thigh, one through the hip and two in the abdomen and is probably fatally shot. Samuel Barnaby, a prominent union man, was shot three times and is probably fatally wounded. Henry Delaney, another union man, was wounded three times, while William Booth escaped with a broken arm, caused by a bullet.

Marshal Taylor was quickly on the scene and, summoning aid, arrested all the participants, including the men who were wounded. No further trouble resulted, although there was suppressed excitement for several hours, and the authorities took every precaution to prevent further outbreaks.

The West Kentucky mines have been operated by non union diggers, and there has been a great deal of feeling among union men, while the company has employed guards to protect the present workers.

The members of the miners' union have been on strike for the past year, and serious trouble has long been expected.

Union Miners Guarding Moore.

A special received from Sturgis at 11:30 o'clock says that fourteen union coal miners are guarding the office of the West Kentucky Coal Company, on Adams street, where L. Q. Moore, one of the non-union guards, lies wounded. They do not want Moore removed from the office by the mine officials. The Sheriff of Union county arrived at Sturgis this morning and placed Henry Delaney and Moore under arrest. Delaney is also a nonunion guard. He was taken to Morganfield and placed in jail.

The fight began in a pool-room. The union men were playing on one table and the non-union guards, not on duty at the time, were playing on a table nearby. They had been quarreling the greater part of the evening. A non-union guard cued a ball off the table and it rolled under the table where the union miners were playing. It is said that a non-union man remarked: "Just let them start something; they can get all they want to-night." In an instant a dozen pistols were produced and the firing began. About 20 shots were fired.

Sam Barnaby, at last reports, was dying. He is a brother of Kit Barnaby, president of the Western District Mine Workers. President Barnaby is on the scene tonight. The union men declare that more guards will be shipped into Sturgis, and they declare that Moore, who is only slightly wounded, shall not be released.

Hopkinsville Men.

Elihu Dougherty, who was killed, lived here and was a brother-in-law of John Y. Gray, Jr., the liveryman. While acting as a special policeman last spring he was shot by a negro while making an arrest near Fairview. After recovering from his wound, he sought work as a guard at Sturgis and had been there several months. On Christmas day Lieut. Booth Morris, Policeman E. N. Miller, W. H. Nixon and Dougherty's brother went to Sturgis and brought the young man's corpse home for burial.

L. Q. Moore, known as Quinn Moore, the captain of the guards, is also from this county. He married Miss Eva Sisk, a daughter of J. N. Sisk, and a niece of Dr. J. B. Jackson and C. S. Jackson, of this city. There are conflicting stories as to the extent of his injuries. One report says he is fatally shot and another says his wounds are not serious.

LAST MEETING

For the Year Will Be Held To-Night.

The council will have its last meeting for the year this evening to close up some unfinished matters. The next meeting, January 3, will be the most important meeting of the year. Mayor Meacham will submit his annual message to the council, reviewing the work of 1906 and outlining the work for 1907 that in his opinion should be done.

JEFF MORRIS

Has Moved Into the Phoenix Building.

Jeff Morris moved into the Phoenix building, first floor, yesterday. He has occupied the first room in the second story of the Hooser building for about 17 years.

Ladies Suits, Ladies Suits.

My entire stock of Ladies Suits and Skirts now offered at Actual Cost.

Nothing reserved. Now is your chance to get a cheap Skirt or Suit.

T. M. Jones.

J. F. GARNETT, President. JNO. B. TRICE, Cashier.
T. J. McKEYNOLDS, Vice-President. F. W. DABNEY, Vice-President.

PLANTERS BANK & TRUST CO.,

Capital Stock - $100,000.00.

Thoroughly Equipped to Take Care of

Your BANK ACCOUNT,
BUSINESS,
INVESTMENTS, VALUABLES.

Will appreciate your business in any department.

INTEREST PAID ON TIME DEPOSITS.

CHEWED HIS JAWS.

Bloody Fight Between Two Negroes at Kennedy.

Sunday afternoon Jim Evans and John Gordon, negroes, engaged in a fight in the former's house at Kennedy and both men were pretty badly used up. It is said that they were engaged in a crap game and disputed over the ownership of 20 cents. Evans was cut on the head with a knife, several stitches being required to sew up the wound. Gordon's jaws were chewed up and his injuries had to be looked after by a surgeon also. No arrests have been made.

MATRIMONIAL.

Numerous Marriage Licenses
Issued This Week.

Walter Major and Miss May Hopper, young people of the Macedonia neighborhood, were married at the home of the bride yesterday afternoon. Rev. J. W. McCarroll performed the ceremony.

Licenses issued Christmas day were as follows:

W. O. Coombs to Tenie Lawson.
Jesse Johnson to Nancy Jones.
Charles C. Cobb to Daisy Tilley.
The following licenses were issued Monday:
Carl L. Hillman to Bertie Morrison.
Elmer Hall to Edna P'Pool.

Oysters!

The finest that have been in Hopkinsville this season.

CELERY,
Cran Berries,
ORANGES

And all kinds of good eatables for Xmas.

W. T. Cooper & Co.